Got Lean? Critical Lean Tools for Surviving and Thriving in Current Economic Crisis!?

Adil Dalal presented the conference titled "Got Lean? Critical Lean Tools for Surviving and Thriving in Current Economic Crisis!" on September 9. The presentation connected concepts of Lean, teachings from the Nature from the perspective of an eagle, and Deming's 14 points to provide lessons that can be used to better face the current economical crisis. Attendants said that Adil's discussion was innovative and its content can be conveyed to other audiences. Below, some pictures of that event. Click thumbnail for larger view of photo.
